WHY THE BOOMWHACKER CHALLENGE?

When you are short on time, or on space – or want to engage a large group instantly – then Boomwhackers it is! Perfect at a conference as an energizer (they make great giveaways too!), ideal as a team building event for larger groups or just for fun.

Boomwhackers really do surprise and delight – making a unique ‘polyphonic sound’ that layers into an incredible ensemble.

The Boomwhacker Challenge creates a feel-good factor like no other. Like trying to whistle after eating a lemon it's almost impossible to do this without laughter

HOW IT WORKS

The event starts with a few vocal and rhythm exercises – to get everyone warmed up and in the mood. We then introduce the boomwhackers which are initially handed out randomly.

Follow our lead percussionists each colour tube (boomwhacker) must learn their unique rhythm. Once all learnt we start to layer them in until when played all together – they make sweet sweet music.

No music talent is needed. The collective sound made by the group will simply blow minds

Creates a true and wonderful sense of team!
